1 Event Description

The visit took place at the Applied Science Private University, Faculty of Engineering. The faculty dean and the engineering staff welcomed the visitor. The opening included a welcoming word from the faculty dean, followed by introduction about the ECO CAR project presented by Dr. Hanan Saleet. The event included 52 attendees who were students, faculty and staff. The visitors from RWTH presented two workshops:

First workshop: Current and Next-Generation Battery Systems presented by Dr. Florian Ringbeck-RWTH Aachen University-Germany

Second workshop: Bottom -Up Modelling of Batteries, from State-of-the-Art to Novel Technologies Dr. Stephan Bihn--RWTH Aachen University-Germany

The attendees got a huge value from the two workshops. The visitors attended a tour through the faculty of Engineering where they visited the MIT-center fablab and the ECO CAR lab; they admired the advancement in the infrastructure and the up to date devices and equipment that are used in the labs.
