

Maria Beatriz Marques, is a chemical engineer with a specialization in Quality Management. She is a Managing-Partner of P&B: Currently she works with companies providing consulting, auditing and training services mainly in the area of quality and innovation. He had been involved in the implementation of several quality and innovation management system in companies. She is certified auditor in the area of quality and environmental management systems. She had participated in several TEMPUS and ERASMUS+ projects, including projects in the environment area such as MAPEC and EGREEN.