

Alessia Dalla Massara

Graduated in law at University of Rome, she started law practicing in civil, criminal and administrative legal firms. In 2013 she obtained a second level Master's degree in Procurement and Management, at the end of which she carried out an internship at the "Istituto Poligrafico e Zecca dello Stato" in the field of purchasing and public tender. In particular, she dealt with the management of all activities related to the procurement of goods and services, such as the preparation of tender documentation, the coordination of the whole contractual activity and the monitoring of the executive phase of the contract. She deals with Auditing of project financial documentation and administration for Sapienza University of Rome.