

Gabriella Calderari

PhD in sustainable development and international cooperation. Researcher in the field of International and European Energy law with particular attention to legislations and energy policies for the deployment of renewable energy. Lawyer specialized in European Law (University of Bologna) and management of European funds (FP6, FP7, Horizon2020, Intelligent Energy, Tempus, Erasmus+). Project manager since 2007 at Interuniversity Research Centre for sustainable development of Sapienza University of Rome, dealing with European project's general and financial management.