1 Event Description

On 6 December 2021, the workshop "Enabling Conditions for Sustainable Synthetic Fuels in Jordan - Infrastructures and Industries" took place in Amman, Jordan, under the patronage of the Jordanian Minister of Energy H.E. Eng. Amani Al-Azzam together with Elisabeth Girrback, Country Director of GIZ Jordan, Prof. Ahmed Al-Salaymeh, president of the National University College of Technology (NUCT), and Dr Peter Viebahn, Head of Research Unit Sectors and Technologies at the Wuppertal Institute in the framework of the German-Jordanian partnership.

The workshop was organized within the framework of the research project "MENA Fuels - Roadmaps for Sustainable Synthetic Fuel Generation in the Middle East and North Africa" on behalf of the German Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Energy (BMWi). Representatives from a number of ministries, institutions, and companies, as well as academics from universities, research and studies centres and civil society, participated in this workshop, as ECO-CAR project participated within the event.
