1 Event Description

The Faculty of Education at Suez Canal University is organizing a training workshop for faculty members on integrating Information and Communication Technology (ICT) tools into Early Childhood Education curricula. This workshop aims to equip educators with the necessary digital competencies to enhance teaching and learning experiences in early childhood education.

The session will also focus on embedding Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) within curricula, ensuring that early childhood education aligns with global educational priorities. Additionally, participants strategies for designing digital educational content, enabling them to create interactive and engaging learning materials for young learners.

This hands-on workshop will provide practical insights, best practices, and interactive discussions to empower faculty members with innovative pedagogical approaches in digital education.

2 Agenda and/or announcement poster

The poster is for a 'TRAINING Workshop' titled 'Enhancing Faculty members' Skills in Instructional Design and Innovation Using Digital Technologies'. It features logos for the European Union, ICT4EDU, and Suez Canal University. The event is scheduled for Sunday, 16 Feb, from 09.00 to 03.00 PM, at the ICT4EDU LAB - Faculty of Education, Suez Canal University. The instructors are Dr. Nehal Lotfy and Dr. Basem Abdelghany. The poster includes two circular images: one showing children holding up colorful drawings, and another showing students in a classroom using VR headsets and tablets.
