

Dr. Alexandru CĂRȚIȘ

Alexandru CĂRȚIȘ, Ph.D.(c), is the Head Education Unit of CIVIS – Europe’s Civic University Alliance, based at the University of Bucharest, and teaching assistant at the Faculty of Psychology and Educational Sciences of the same university. He holds a bachelor’s degree in Educational Sciences (specialised in Pedagogy) and in Religious Studies (specialised in Theology), master’s degree studies in Religious Studies (specialised in Religion History and Christian Thinking), and postgraduate specialisations in Educational Management & Leadership. Currently, he is doing his Ph.D. studies in Educational Sciences, on a topic linked with curricular innovation in higher education through micro-credentials and flexibilization, his main research areas being higher education, curricular design and innovation, teaching & learning practices, micro-credentials, modularisation of learning, doctoral studies, and public policies in education and research. Actively engaged in innovating teaching & learning in higher education, Alexandru Cărțiș is currently member of several national and international working groups focused on different topics related to higher education and educational research, such as: UNICA EduLAB sub-group for the development of a Glossary of Terms related to the Higher Education Area, EOOSC (European Open Science Cloud) Future User Group, Consultative Commission for Doctoral Students of the National Alliance of Student Organisations in Romania (ANOSR), being also and associate-member of the Romanian Association for Research in Education (ARCE).