

Dr. Diala Hamaidi

Dr. Hamaidi is an associate professor in Early Childhood Education at the Faculty of Educational Sciences, University of Jordan, Jordan. She served as the Assistant Dean for Quality and Development (2014-2017). Dr. Hamaidi was selected to serve as a member of Higher Education Reform Experts (HERE) /National Erasmus+ Office - Jordan Ministry of Higher Education (2013-2017). Furthermore, she participated in two of Erasmus+ Projects: RUCAS and CLIMASP. Dr. Hamaidi published several studies in peer-reviewed international journals. Her research interests include several subjects such as children's emotion regulation, developing the "circle of courage" model among children, developing child's thinking skills, early childhood teaching and assessment methods, professional development of early childhood teachers, curriculum implementations in Early Childhood Education, inclusive practices in Early Childhood Classroom.