

Dr. Rasha Abo Talib

She is Assistant Professor of kindergarten Dep., Faculty of Human Studies, Al-Azhar Uni. Effectiveness of a training program based on the self-learning strategy for developing certain digital transformation skills needed for the kindergarten student teacher. Effectiveness of an electronic training program to reduce speech disorders in Improving self-confidence and reducing social anxiety to a sample of children with cleft palate. A training program to develop the skill of self-evaluation using the electronic achievement portfolio of student teacher in kindergarten. Expert in advanced methods for teaching children in the field of information and communication technology including:- Artificial intelligence, Smart board, Virtual reality& augmented reality, and Intelligent digital empowerment.