

Dr. Shimaa Abd El Aziz

She is Associate Professor of kindergarten Dep., Faculty of Human Studies, Al-Azhar University. Expert in vocational technology in the field of kindergarten with ordinary child. Expert in technological arts to develop the cultural identity of the Egyptian child (visual-technological) to protect him/her from hazards. She has an important role in the readable media for child education in pre-school stage to improve some developmental fields. Team Member of the program of Quranic stories (traditional-in early childhood). Team member of the program of museum education (interactive and electronic) to develop cultural awareness for the kindergarten child in the light of Museum education theories. Expert in the traditional and interactive media to developing the awareness of renewable sources of energy in the light of global crisis of climate change for the kindergarten child. Effectiveness of enrichment activities, educational drama and electronic media for kindergarten child to acquire the concepts of circular economy and its impact on consumption rationalization behavior in the light of the National strategy 2050. Training on employing education technology for children with special needs. Training on requirements of digital transformation and smart University. Training on educational technology Innovations in kindergarten (virtual reality).