

Mr. Waleed Ahmad

Information Technology Lecturer at Palestine Technical University - Kadoorie with 10+ years of experience in system analysis & design, and full-stack web development. He strongly focusses on the connecting point between IT, people, and business. I am always eager to learn; I thrive in situations where I can put together people and my skills to solve organizations' and society's problems