

Dr Aiman Al Sharei (MD)

Assistant Dean of the faculty of medicine at HU, Director of Clinical Skills Education and Testing Center

Dr. Aiman Al Sharei is a lecturer of Human Anatomy, Histology, and Clinical Skills, he is the acting director of Clinical Skills Education and Testing Center, and also the assistant dean of the faculty of medicine at Hashemite University. Dr. Al Sharei holds the M.S in human anatomy from the University of Western Australia, Australia and the Diploma in General Medicine and Surgery. His research spans the topics of simulation in medical education, 3D Anatomy, health informatics, health educational development approaches. In 2015, Dr. Al Sharei together with his team leader, his Excellency Professor Kamal Bani-Hani, the Hashemite University won the first place in El Hassan Bin Talal Award for Scientific Excellence in recognition of its efforts in establishing a first-of-a-kind Clinical Skills Education and Testing Center.