Dr. Salama Al-Nuaimat, Vice President of the University of Jordan for Humanities, opened the Art Therapy Studio at the Faculty of Arts and Design. This is a new diploma program that is the first of its kind in the region, supported by the European Union under the Erasmus Plus program. Fourteen universities from Jordan, Tunisia, Italy, Greece, Belgium, Portugal, and Croatia participate in the program, led by the University of Jordan.

Dr. Ahmad Al-Salaymeh, the project director, emphasized that the goal of the project is to create curricula and educational materials, and establish art therapy centers at all Jordanian and Tunisian universities participating in the project. Its importance lies in the intersection of its specialties, combining health colleges with the Faculty of Arts and Design.
