Graduation of the first batch of students of the Art Therapy Training Diploma at the Hashemite University

Center for the Art Therapy at the Hashemite University, celebrated the graduation of the first batch of students of the European Union Art Therapy Diploma Program(Erasmus Plus).

Dr. Ayman Al-Sharah, Assistant Dean of the Faculty of Medicine/Project Coordinator, Hashemite University, and Professor Dr. Faisal Madi, Director of Center for Studies and Consulting, handed over certificates to the graduating students.

Students expressed their thanks and gratitude for this unique first-of-a-kind experience at the level of Jordanian Universities and the skills they gained from the program.

Dr. Sharia thanked the administration of the University, represented by its president,

Mr. Dr. Fawaz Abdel Haq Al-Zaboun, for supporting this program and for establishing the art therapy center and sponsoring the diploma training in art therapy.

He also praised what the personnel of the Faculty of Educational Sciences presented by members of the faculty, represented by the efforts of their dean, Dr. Suhail Al-Habashna, in enriching this program. He added that the Hashemite University is an active partner in this program with a group of national, Arab and foreign Universities.

Director Abdul Samad Al-Basoul, the coach and supervisor at the Art Therapy Center, said he is proudly looking down on the graduating students and hopes the community will be touched by the impact of this training program and its role in promoting mental health concepts.
