I have more than 13 years of academic and clinical experience in the field of physical therapy (PT). My current position is the head of the PT department at Isra university. I am responsible for the supervision of the internship program, preparing all paperwork related the department and teaching several undergraduate PT courses. Previously, I worked for 3 years as a teaching assistant at the school of physical and occupational therapy at McGill University. In conjunction with my educational background, I have previously worked as a physiotherapist in Canada and Jordan at different private clinics/hospitals. I am a certified physiotherapist in Quebec (OPPQ), Ontario and a member of the Jordanian Physiotherapy Society.
