

Activity Report

AlBaath University- organized a scientific conference in the 7th of June under a title of "Information Day – OPEN DOOR DAY – Egreen Project" in Al-Baath University.

The Local coordinator of EGREEN project in Syria Prof. Moussa Al Samara participated in the activities of this conference in the presence of the President of AlBaath University ,his vice-presidents ,Deans of the Faculties ,AlBaath University coordinator Dr. Adnan Ghata ,the teaching staff and higher education students of the University.

The first session was started by a detailed presentation by Dr. Adnan Ghata.

Then Prof. Moussa AlSamara presented on behalf of the national coordinator of the EGREEN project Prof. Ahmed Al Salaymeh a detailed explanation about the goals and aspects of EGREEN project After sending the Greetings of the Coordinator of the Project

Prof. Al Salaymeh and deliver a message on behalf of Prof. Salman Ajib of his wishes in a successful event.

Then Prof. AlSamara presented within the frame work of the dissemination plan of EGREEN project, the main goals of the EGREEN project were defined and explained and the relationship between this project and the environment and climate change and energy sustainability was presented and well identified on the occasion of the environmental day.

The President of Al Baath University presented a speech which he identified the special cooperation with partners and their support and a special thanks was delivered to The University of Jordan because of the interest it offers by the President of the University of Jordan and the National coordinator of the EGREEN Project Prof. Al Salaymeh and the interest of Prof. Salman Ajib from Germany to activate the cooperation for the best of our universities. The best example is MAPEC project which gives support to our student by scientific materials and the important equipments to our universities.

The second session was a workshop in the presence of all who attend the first session about the horizons of EGREEN project, the courses proposed from the project and all the question of the students and the teaching staff of the university were answered. Then there was a discussion about the offer of the project's equipments that the university needs for the good implementation of EGREEN project.

Through discussions the graduated from MAPEC program demand credence of their certification from European Union (Tempus)

At the end, the Local Coordinator of the project in Syria exchanged presents with the President of Al Baath University of printed material of EGREEN project in the presence of the Coordinator of the project Prof. Adnan Ghata.

End of the Report